MARY, DID YOU KNOW?

BY MARK LOWRY AND BUDDY GREEN
ARRANGED BY CRAIG COURTNEY

From the Composer

Inspiration is often a mysterious, elusive partner in writing music. Sometimes it comes in waves, sometimes in pieces and sometimes, like a shy child, it waits to be coaxed out of its hiding place. There are few times in my life where inspiration has come instantaneously. However, when contemplating setting Mary, Did You Know, I immediately “heard” voices forming a cluster based on the first five pitches of the melody. I later came to realize that I was “hearing” a musical expression of mystery and awe. In essence, everything in the arrangement flowed from that.

– Craig Courtney

Note: In the SATB and SSAA versions, women’s voices sing aleatoric phrases during the introduction, echoing “Mary, did you know?” In the TTBB version, however, the voices only form the cluster; the aleatoric singing is omitted due to the denser overtones of the men’s vocal register.
